What's been INSPIRING as a commissioner?

Vision - the roadmap for where the charity and its people are heading

An equal world where all girls can make a positive difference, be happy, safe and fulfil their potential.

Vision - the roadmap for where the charity and its people are heading

Think back to when you started as a commissioner;

- How did you feel?
- What were you thinking?
- What did you want to do?
- What did you want to achieve?

Strategy - the main objectives and steps needed to realise the vision

Your learning journey

Commissioner supporting commissioners

In this role, you'll support other commissioners who directly support our units. It's a fantastic opportunity to spot skills and support others to give something new a try. You'll help take Girlguiding forward in your area, providing amazing opportunities for girls and young women and work with teams across your whole division. You'll help girls and volunteers develop their confidence and skills and give members a voice. You'll meet new people, challenge yourself and have fun with a team.

Commissioner supporting units

This role directly supports our units and is busy and important. You'll support unit volunteers to provide amazing experiences for girls and young women. You'll use your Girlguiding knowledge and experience to advise leaders and other volunteers on running their units to give young members the best opportunities. It's a fantastic chance to spot skills and support others to give something new a try. You'll get to know volunteers and girls across your area and help them develop their confidence and skills.
