

Sue: Brownie Leader

Sue is a bubbly character, very enthusiastic and bursting with ideas. She has had experience with the Ranger Section. Sue thinks big! She likes to have her fingers in lots of pies and volunteers to take on many responsibilities. However, Sue doesn't always deliver what she promises and works with speed rather than accuracy. Sue doesn't always think through what is feasible and can treat risk assessments as just a box ticking exercise.

Gill: Guide Leader

Gill is 'old school', she has been in Guiding for a long time and is happy 'doing what we've always done'. Gill is happiest working on her own, rather than in a group. Give her a specific task to do and she will do it exactly as asked. She may drive you mad phoning up and asking lots of specific questions, but she just wants to get it right. Her ideal plan for the day will have every activity and timing itemised almost down to the last second.

Janine: Rainbow Leader

Janine goes with the flow. She is happy with what everyone decides and will support them wholeheartedly. Janine really doesn't like arguments and will try to get everyone on board with persuasion and good humour. She is the glue in the team and is a 'mother hen' figure. Don't expect her to decide anything quickly as she needs time to mull over things. The task will get done but at her pace.

Sally: Ranger Leader

Sally is a high flyer in her career, and this shows in her attitude to Guiding. Sally is decisive and likes to be the one in control. She is an organiser, is always doing something and can come across as abrupt. She doesn't suffer fools gladly and finds it difficult to accept advice, but she is a whizz at getting things done. If you want something done quickly and efficiently then Sally is your person. She can be trusted to do what is asked of her.

Lisa: Rainbow Leader

Lisa loves finances, spreadsheets, anything to do with planning! She is happiest with everything documented, cross referenced and accurate. If it's not on a spreadsheet, it's not happening! She is cautious about costs, and will spend a lot of time sourcing resources for the right price. Lisa is very protective about her lists and will password protect them to prevent anyone interfering.

Liz: Brownie Leader

Liz loves to be involved, but in a lot of ways, it's all about her. Liz wants her ideas to be used, even though they may not be practical. However, she does enthuse everyone and keeps them motivated, and she is happy to think outside the box. Liz can sometimes flit, not concentrating on one thing for any length of time: if it's not done now, then let's move on approach.

Helen: Brownie Leader

Helen is new to Guiding and is finding her feet. She really wants to get involved, but is quiet and diffident. Helen works with Liz in the Brownie Unit and is a bit under her shadow, but Helen is a great support to Liz. Helen does need someone to reassure her that she is doing the right thing.

Joy: Trefoil member

Joy has been the District and Division Commissioner and ran an excellent Guide Unit before she retired. She has a wealth of Guiding and local knowledge and has a lot of secretarial experience. Joy can be a bit of a steam roller, and tact is not a strong quality (she sometimes thinks she's still in charge) but she firmly believes that Guiding is all about the girl, and works to that aim.
