

Threats to Nature Quiz Questions for Guides and Rangers - Questions

The UK's nature is in trouble.

1

What percentage of plant and animal species are in decline?

- A. 21%
- B. 35%
- C. 41%

2

What percentage of plant and animal species are at risk of becoming extinct from the UK?

- A. 8%
- B. 15%
- C. 22%

3

Which one of these has caused the most problems for nature in the last 40 years?:

- A. Intensive Farming
- B. Climate Change
- C. House and road building

4

Which of these also causes problems for nature?

- A. Pollution
- B. Woods and wetlands not being managed for nature
- C. Some plants and animals which aren't native to the UK

5

Which of these birds is the most endangered?

- A. Puffin
- B. Tawny Owl
- C. Red Kite

6

How many children regularly visit a natural place close to their home?

- A. Less than a quarter
- B. Half
- C. Three quarters

Working together to give nature a home:

7

Do you think that government funding for nature has:

- A. Increased
- B. Decreased
- C. Stayed the same

8

How many of the 20 UN biodiversity targets did the UK meet?***

- A. 15
- B. 20
- C. 6

**According to the UK government.*

9

Do you think that the number of people who volunteer to help nature has:

- A. Increased
- B. Decreased
- C. Stayed the same

Climate change

10

Climate change means that:

- A. The planet is heating up
- B. There will be less snowfall
- C. Sea levels will fall

11

Which of these leads to climate change?

- A. Burning coal, oil and natural gas to power our homes, cars and factories
- B. Chopping down rainforests
- C. Cow's burping

12

Climate change will only to be harmful to wildlife found in other parts of the world, like polar bears and penguins.

- A. True
- B. False

13

The Hazel Dormouse wakes up earlier from hibernation, when there isn't enough food for it to eat, because:

- A. People are making too much noise
- B. Winters are warmer because of climate change
- C. The light from houses and streetlamps wakes them

14

Seabirds in the UK are under threat because warmer sea water, due to climate change, means that:

- A. Seabirds can't dive into the water to catch fish.
- B. There aren't enough fish for seabirds to eat.
- C. More people are swimming in the sea and this is scaring away the birds.

15

How can we help to tackle climate change?

- A. Putting on another jumper rather than turning the heating up
- B. Turning the lights off when leaving a room
- C. Walking/cycling when travelling to school